JUNIOR PLAY

"Deacon Dubbs," the Junior Play will be given at the School Auditorium Friday, April 27.

Deacon Dubbs a jolly, middle-aged widower from Serghum Center, State of West Virginny, visits his nephew and niece, Amos and Trixie Coleman. Amos is in love with Rose Rawleigh, the little school Ma'am. Her little farm is about to be sold by auction but Amos and the Deacon raise enough money to buy it back. Rawdon Crawley, agent of the Empire State Trust Company, discovers error on the place so decides to bid on the place. Major McNutt, the auctioneer, takes a drink now and again. Deuteronomy, the hired man, breaks the bottles put in the cooler so Deacon drinks to much.

Rose believing her husband, Rawdon Crawley, is dead consents to marry Amos. Deacon falls in love with Miss Philipina, the housekeeper. Yennie Yenson and Emily Dale add much to the story.

EDITORIAL

The time for the annual Field and Track Meet, which will be held at Talent, May 4, will soon be here. All eligible students who are able and desire to see their school win are working at their events.

Mr. Tyrrell, the Physical Training Teacher, is able by the aid of his Captains, to keep the work progressing. "Never get discouraged", seems to be the motto; there is a great deal of interest shown.

The Field and Track work is mental training as well as physical training; it teaches the student sportsmanship and leadership.

Since the old cup went to Central Point for good, a new cup has been purchased by the Association, which we hope to be proud possessors after the Field Meet.

COME TO THE JUNIOR PLAY. SEE WHAT HAPPENS TO THE DIACON.

P. H. S. NOTES

Monday afternoon at the Student Body Meeting it was decided to have the picnic at the Bibby bridge on Rogue River.

Marjorie Caster and Floyd Watkins were given the pencils that they won in the Maggie and Jiggs Contest. Mr. Milam gave a very cheery little talk and presented the pencils to the two salesman. The pencils were gold and made by the Conklin Company. The whole school congratulates those who received the pencils.

Joannette Sheets visited the Medford Schools one day last week.

Emma Johnson and Irene Stanley went flower picking last Sunday and had a very enjoyable afternoon.

Elsie Edwards was absent from school Monday on account of sickness.

Ethel Boggs was absent from school all last week. She has been quite ill. The Students are purchasing some new tennis balls.

Mildred Hughes was a visitor in Ashland Sunday.

The Seniors have selected their class rings and invitations.

Everyone is practicing for the Field Meet in hopes of winning something for the school.

Girls Baseball Team is looking forward to the opening of the baseball season and are hoping that they will be successful enough to obtain the ten points at Field Meet. The Students all wish them the very best of luck.

Harold von der Hellen was in Eagle Point visiting his relatives, Saturday.

Mrs. Watkins, Dorothea McClain and Floyd Watkins attended the play given by the members of the South Methodist Church last Friday night.

Margret Moto is Secretary of the Phoenix Sunday School.

Winnie Schmack was a shopper in Medford Saturday.

Della Mast is riding around in a new Ford.

The Sophomore Class has just finished the "Tale of Two Cities".

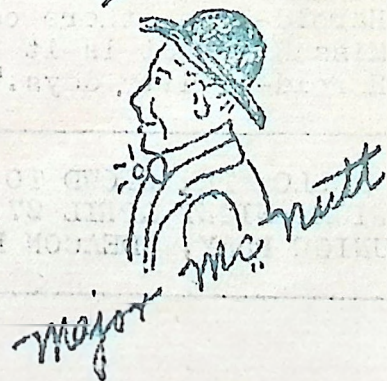

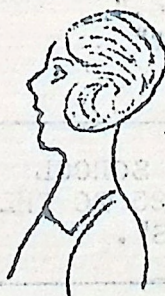

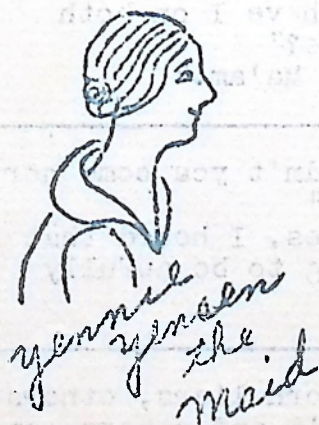

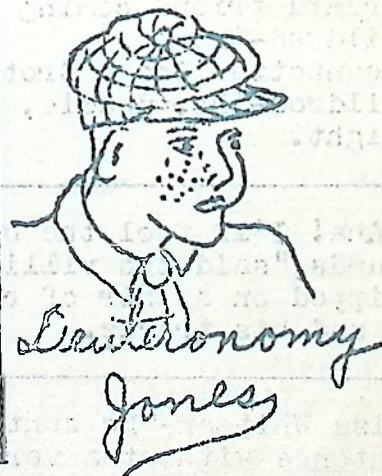

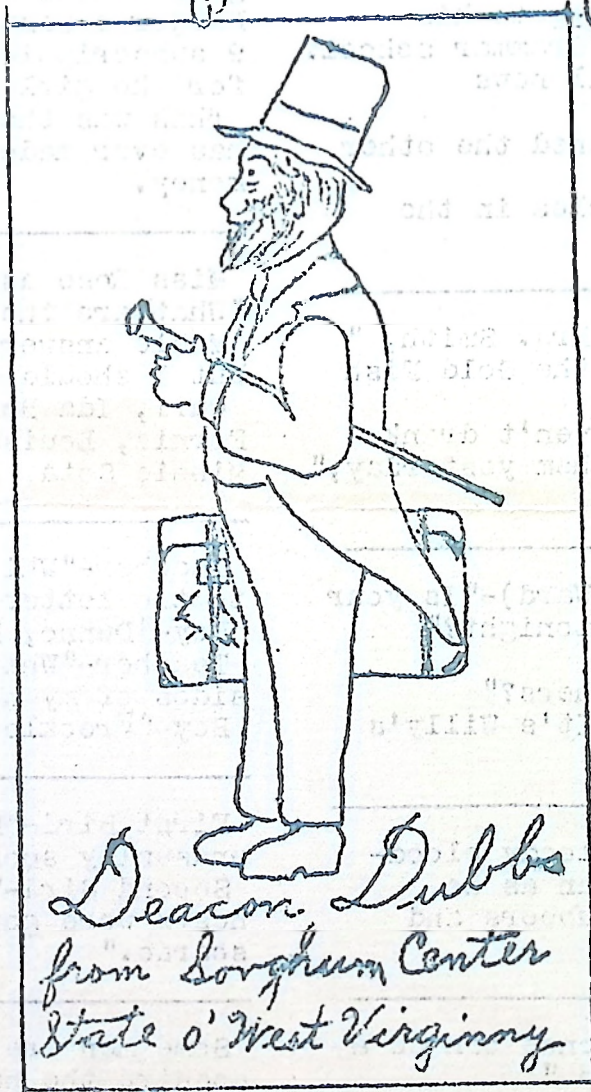

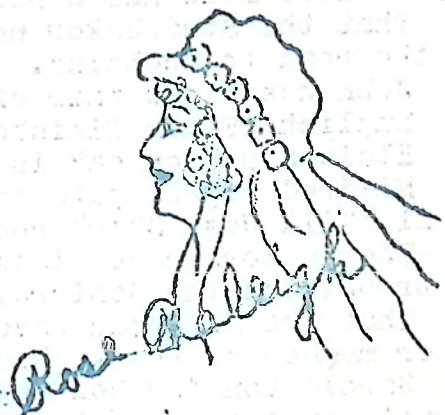

Mildred Ward was in Medford Saturday.

Mr. Milam's Son is here now. He has just returned from New York.

Audrey Smith and Chester Parsons attended the show last Saturday night.

THE STAFF HAS OBSERVED THAT:

Mildred Bolz has a new necktie.
That the Studebaker no longer travels
the road to McClains.
John has a new pair of trousers.
English IV has finished "Hamlet".
Elsie's poison oak is better.
Mildred Hughes puts on an occasional "Wild West Show" coming to school.
The Juniors have almost as much trouble as the Seniors.
That the Freshmen have lost another member of their class.
Harold von der Hellen gets his mail on time from the Grammar school.
Maggie gets occasional news
from the U. of O.
Blackboards were cleaned the other day.
There are two new Uncles in the High School.

"Audrey, dear," said Mrs. Smith, "
"Will you please give the Gold Fish
some water?"
"Yes, Ma, but they haven't drank
all the water I gave them yesterday," replied Audrey.

Jeannette(to Mildred Ward)-"Is your Packard friend coming tonight?"
Mildred-"No."
Jeannette-"Dodge Brothers?"
Mildred-"No, dearie, It's Willy's Knight."

"Aha! I'll fool the bloody blood-hounds," said the villian as he slipped on a pair of rubbers and erased his tracks.

Miss Whitman-"No sentence can be a sentence without a verb."
Harold-"Yes, there can be."
Miss W.-"What is it then?"
Harold-"Thirty days."

FOLLOW THE CROWD TO THE SCHOOL
FRIDAY NIGHT APRIL 27, 1923 TO THE JUNIOR PLAY, "DEACON DUBBS".

MAGGIE AND JIGGS CONTEST ENDED.

The Maggie and Jiggs contest which ended last Thursday proved that the Jiggs were the winning side.
The school sold 113 subscriptions
leaving $56.50 for our athletics.
The Maggies are going to give the Jiggs a picnic Friday night April 20th.
Floyd Watkins, a Jiggs who got 42 subscriptions received the gold pencil for the boy's and Marjorie Caster, A Maggie, who got 9 subscriptions received the pencil
for the girl's.
This was the easiest way Phoenix has ever made their athletic money.

Miss Rose asked her eighth grade
"What are the sister states?"
Mable answered, "I am not sure
but I should think they were Miss Ouri, Ida Ho, Mary Land, Callie
Formis, Louisa Anna, Della Ware,
Minnie Sota, and Mrs. Sippi."

Teacher-"Which letter comes next to the letter "H".
Boy-"Durno, Ma'am."
Teacher-"What have I on both sides of my nose?"
Boy-"Freckles, Ma'am."

First Bird-"Didn't you come north unusually soon?"
Secord Bird-"Yes, I heard that nests were going to be awfully scarce."

Some men are born liars, others acquire the habit and others get married and have it thrust upon them.-Ex.

"You may leave the room".
"You didn't think I was going to take it with me did you?"-Ex.
